

TOWN OF CHESTER

Housing Commission Members

The Town of Chester is seeking community members interested in serving as a member of Chester's new Housing Commission.

The purpose of the Chester Housing Commission is to advise the Town Manager, Selectboard, Planning Commission and other municipal boards and committees on the housing needs of the community, including review and consultation of policy and zoning changes related to housing. The Commission works to educate the public on housing topics and develop partnerships with developers, non-profits, state agencies, and social service organizations to advance the community's housing goals. The Commission maintains and analyzes the community's demographic and housing stock information and provides periodic updates on housing issues to town officials. The ultimate responsibility of each Commissioner is to fulfill that purpose for the greater Chester community.

Preference will be given to Individuals will experience in any of the following: for-profit and non-profit housing development; housing authorities and agencies; social services organizations; banking and finance professionals; legal professionals; as well as a representative of the area businesses.

If interested, please submit your letter of interest, with qualifications to Julie Hance, Town Manager, at 556 Elm Street, P.O. Box 370, Chester, Vermont, 05143 or via email at Julie.hance@chestervt.gov no later than Friday, June 23, 2023 at 12:00 p.m.
